

VOW OF SERVICE

*W*e the people of Harrowgate Heath, for the benefit of all Ealdormerians, do hereby Solemnly vow to provide an Honoure Guard to protect the many treasures entrusted to the Museum of the Kingdom of Ealdormere, when so ever the museum is present at Events held within the Baronial lands, for a period of five years. This Period shall commence at the first Skrael event where the museum and its artefacts are on display for Gyntles in attendance. The vow shall be discharg'd only on the fifth anniversary of that day, or if it pleases Thy Majesties, to release us from oure vow. This service we Pledge for oureselves, and for the benefit of oure children, so that they may know and appreciate the memories held in the museum and that these memories are kept Safe for generations to come. So sworn on this faire night, the eighth day of November, Anno Societatis 43, at the Feast of the Hare.
